

WHAT YOUR DOLLARS WILL DO FOR...

EDUCATION

$26 or $1 per bi-weekly pay will provide:

- a Child Check developmental screening for a child.
- Born Learning educational materials for a family.

$52 or $1 per week will provide:

- child abuse prevention education or legal advocacy for a child.
- a disabled child with career opportunities & vocational preparation.
- a parenting class for parents in divorce.
- membership to the Dunbar afterschool program for a child.

$260 or $5 per week will provide:

- scouting experience for a boy.
- a week of Girl Scout day camp for a girl.

$520 or $10 per week will provide:

- supplemental special-needs childcare for a child for one year.

$780 or $15 per week will provide:

- special-needs summer camp for a child for one week.
- Big Brothers Big Sisters program for a child for one year.
- family counseling for a family for one year.
- Voyagers Social/Emotional/Behavioral Summer Camp for a child.

FINANCIAL STABILITY

$52 or $1 per week will provide:

- free tax preparation and assistance for a struggling household.

$260 or $5 per week will provide:

- a month of Adult Day Care for an aging or ill family member so that the caregiver can remain employed.

$520 or $10 per week will provide:

- all-inclusive housing counseling, credit repair, budgeting and employment workshops for an individual or family.
- temporary childcare for a month to help a parent get or keep a job.

$1,040 or $20 per week will provide:

- a month of medical-model personal care for an aging person whose Social Security is based on wages earned 20 to 30 years ago. Nursing home care may cost between $3,000 and $5,000 per month comparatively.

CONNECTING PEOPLE

$52 or $1 per week will provide:

- help to connect a family to their family member on active duty in the Armed Forces in the event of a family emergency.
- a connection for a person struggling with depression or anxiety to a "Warmline" operator who is there to listen.

$104 or $2 per week will provide:

- a mental health consumer with a drop-in center where they may build employment skills, life skills and attend support groups.

$260 or $5 per week will provide:

- a family in crisis with emergency food, heating fuel or temporary housing for a month.

WHAT YOUR DOLLARS WILL DO FOR...

EDUCATION

$26 or $1 per bi-weekly pay will provide:

- a Child Check developmental screening for a child.
- Born Learning educational materials for a family.

$52 or $1 per week will provide:

- child abuse prevention education or legal advocacy for a child.
- a disabled child with career opportunities & vocational preparation.
- a parenting class for parents in divorce.
- membership to the Dunbar afterschool program for a child.

$260 or $5 per week will provide:

- scouting experience for a boy.
- a week of Girl Scout day camp for a girl.

$520 or $10 per week will provide:

- supplemental special-needs childcare for a child for one year.

$780 or $15 per week will provide:

- special-needs summer camp for a child for one week.
- Big Brothers Big Sisters program for a child for one year.
- family counseling for a family for one year.
- Voyagers Social/Emotional/Behavioral Summer Camp for a child.

FINANCIAL STABILITY

$52 or $1 per week will provide:

- free tax preparation and assistance for a struggling household.

$260 or $5 per week will provide:

- a month of Adult Day Care for an aging or ill family member so that the caregiver can remain employed.

$520 or $10 per week will provide:

- all-inclusive housing counseling, credit repair, budgeting and employment workshops for an individual or family.
- temporary childcare for a month to help a parent get or keep a job.

$1,040 or $20 per week will provide:

- a month of medical-model personal care for an aging person whose Social Security is based on wages earned 20 to 30 years ago. Nursing home care may cost between $3,000 and $5,000 per month comparatively.

CONNECTING PEOPLE

$52 or $1 per week will provide:

- help to connect a family to their family member on active duty in the Armed Forces in the event of a family emergency.
- a connection for a person struggling with depression or anxiety to a "Warmline" operator who is there to listen.

$104 or $2 per week will provide:

- a mental health consumer with a drop-in center where they may build employment skills, life skills and attend support groups.

$260 or $5 per week will provide:

- a family in crisis with emergency food, heating fuel or temporary housing for a month.

WHAT YOUR DOLLARS WILL DO FOR...

EDUCATION

$26 or $1 per bi-weekly pay will provide:

- a Child Check developmental screening for a child.
- Born Learning educational materials for a family.

$52 or $1 per week will provide:

- child abuse prevention education or legal advocacy for a child.
- a disabled child with career opportunities & vocational preparation.
- a parenting class for parents in divorce.
- membership to the Dunbar afterschool program for a child.

$260 or $5 per week will provide:

- scouting experience for a boy.
- a week of Girl Scout day camp for a girl.

$520 or $10 per week will provide:

- supplemental special-needs childcare for a child for one year.

$780 or $15 per week will provide:

- special-needs summer camp for a child for one week.
- Big Brothers Big Sisters program for a child for one year.
- family counseling for a family for one year.
- Voyagers Social/Emotional/Behavioral Summer Camp for a child.

FINANCIAL STABILITY

$52 or $1 per week will provide:

- free tax preparation and assistance for a struggling household.

$260 or $5 per week will provide:

- a month of Adult Day Care for an aging or ill family member so that the caregiver can remain employed.

$520 or $10 per week will provide:

- all-inclusive housing counseling, credit repair, budgeting and employment workshops for an individual or family.
- temporary childcare for a month to help a parent get or keep a job.

$1,040 or $20 per week will provide:

- a month of medical-model personal care for an aging person whose Social Security is based on wages earned 20 to 30 years ago. Nursing home care may cost between $3,000 and $5,000 per month comparatively.

CONNECTING PEOPLE

$52 or $1 per week will provide:

- help to connect a family to their family member on active duty in the Armed Forces in the event of a family emergency.
- a connection for a person struggling with depression or anxiety to a "Warmline" operator who is there to listen.

$104 or $2 per week will provide:

- a mental health consumer with a drop-in center where they may build employment skills, life skills and attend support groups.

$260 or $5 per week will provide:

- a family in crisis with emergency food, heating fuel or temporary housing for a month.